The Anti-Slavery Bugle.

BENJAMIN S. JONES, EDITOR.

"NO UNION WITH SLAVEHOLDERS."

ANN PEARSON, PUBLISHING AGENT.

VOL. 16.---NO. 22.

SALEM, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, OHIO, SATURDAY, JANUARY 12, 1861.

WHOLE NO. 796.

THE ANTI-SLAVERY BUGLE,

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY AT SALEM, OHIO: By the Executive Committee, of the Western Anti-

TERMS .- $1.50 per annum payable in advance. Communications intended for insertion, to be addressed to BESTANIN S. JONES, Editor.

Columbiana County, Ohio.

above, may be sent by mail at our risk.

We occasionally send numbers to those who are not subscribers, but who are believed to be truth, with the hope that they will either subscribe obligations she had undertaken. shemselves or use their influence to extend itreal ationsmong their friends

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. - - 8.00 served rights. One year, - - -One Fourth Column one year, with privilege sorted one year for $300; six months, $200.

selicited nor published.

The Anti-Slavery Bugle.

SOUTH CAROLINA. DONE IN CON-VENTION, DEC 24 1860.

The State of South Carolina having determined to recume her separate and equal place among nations, deems it due to herself, to the remaining article, provides as follows : United States of North America, and to the nations of the world, that she should declare the causes which have led to this act.

In the year 1775, that portion of the British Emlaws for the government of that portion composed whom such service or labor may be due." of the thirteen American Colonies. A struggle for the right of self-government ensued, which that without it that compact would not have been our fortunes, and our excred honore. resulted on the 4th of July, 1776, in a Declaration by the Colonies "that they are, and of right cought to be be, free and independent States, and that as previously declared her estimate of its value by making it the condition of her cession of the terms and devise the same, and to protect their own persons and independent States they have full power what it that compact would not easily a sets in the heavens, the very moment that Southmark without it that compact would not easily and the vight to acquire and hold made. The greater number of the contracting parties held slaves, and the State of Virginia had previously declared her estimate of its value by the Done will be transferred from the banks of the Pedes to those of the Pontomac sons and reputation by law—asking also joint another chapter of the matter. The same thing tablish commerce, and to do all other acts and Ohio River. things which independent States may of right any "form of government becomes destructive of gitives from justice from the other States. They further solemnly declared that whenever the ends for which it was established, it is the passed laws to carry into effect these stipulations right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to of the States. For many years these laws were institute a new government." Deaming the Gov- executed. But an increasing hostility on the parernment of Great British to have become destruc- of the Northern States to the institution of Slave tive of these ends, they declared that the colonies "are absolved from all allegiance to the British Grown, and that all political connection between to effect the objects of the Constitution. The civil authorities could procure write for the apprethem and the States of Great Britain is, and ought States of Maine, New-Hampshire, Vermont, Mas-tains its sovereignty, freedom, and independence, her own law and by the laws of Congress. In the found only four women and a son of Montgomery. and every power, jurisdiction, and right which is State of New York even the right of transit for a This house, known as Montgomery's Fort, is a not, by this confederation, expressly delegated to Blave has been denied by her tribunals, and the double house, built of heavy logs, the roof of one the United States in Congress assembled."

ed the independence of the colonies in the follow- slaveholding States, and the consequence follows two empty Sharp's rifle boxes.

ARTICLE 1 .- His Britannie Majesty acknowl- tions. Jereey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Vir- quility, provide for the common defense, promote the dragoons to take post at Fort Scott. I considgiais, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Geor- the general welfare, and secure the blessings of er this force necessary for the protection of th gis, to be free, sovereign and independent States, liberty to ourselves and our posterity." that he treats with them as such; and for himself, These ends it endeavored to accomplish by a ever called upon in arresting the offenders. of the same and every part thereof."

was the fact that each Colony became and was rec- We affirm that those ends for which this Govern- goons will then return to Fort Riley.

If only nine of the thirteen States had concur- pictures, to servile insurrection. red, the other four would have remained as they For seventy-five years this agitation has been portion of it is perverted from the use intended by tended all the from service. The wording of the statute them, which he did, and they were set from "-In fact, two of the States did not accede to the serving the forms of the Constitution, a sectional thoroughly break up this band.

Money carefully enveloped and directed as reserved to the States respectively, or to the in the course of ultimate extinction.

States, a Government, with defined o'gents and destructive of its peace and safety. One Square, (16 lines) three weeks, . . $1 00 and to so much more only as was necessary to possession of the Government. It has announced 25 execute the power granted. This limitation left that the South shall be excluded from the common 4 00 the whole remaining mass of power subject to the territory; that the judicial tribunals shall be made 6.00 clause reserving it to the States or to the people, sectional, and that a war must be waged against Two Squares six months, - - - - 5.00 and rendered unnecessary any specification of re- Slavery until it shall cease throughout the United

of changing monthly, - - - 12 00 is subject to the two great principles asserted in longer exist; the equal rights of the States will be notice in this threat. In the first place, it sounds slave, lets his wife get up, and build fires, and get -an acknowledged scoundrel-delivery of him re-Half Column, changing monthly. - 20.00 the Declaration of Independence, and we hold lost. The Slaveholding States will no longer have very much like the bullying which they are in the his breakfast, habitually; and appropriates her fused, because he had not committed that which Cards not exceeding eight lines will be in- further that the mode of its formation subjects it the power of self-protection, habit of considering as purely of Southern origin. Advertisements for patent medicines, speci- of compact. We maintain that in every compact their enemies. de remedies, chance to make money, &c., neither between two or more parties the obligation is mu- Sectional interest and animosity will deepen the sired to force a fellowship with barbarians, blood- it out, and spent it; thus betraying her confidence Governor of Kentucky had sued out a writ of and that, where no arbiter is provided, each party a more erroneous religious belief.

their own statutes for the proof.

therein, be discharged from such service or labor, dent States may of right do.

itory which now composes the States north of the

The same article of the Constitution stipulates also for the rendition by the several States of fu-

The General Government, as the common agent, ry has led to a disregard of their obligations, and sachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New-York, ordered Captain Barry's command, two companies -legislative, executive, and judicial. For pur- or labor claimed, and in none of them has the the day before, State of Ohio and Iowa have refused to surrender projecting over like a blockhouse, the other of very LETTER FROM MRS. FRANCES D. GAGE. Under this confederation the war of the Revoluto justice fugitives charged with murder and with heavy hewn logs, fitting close together, except at tion was carried on, and on the 3d of September, inciting service insurrection in the State of Virgi- about the height of a man's shoulder there is an 1783, the contest ended, and a definite treaty was nia. Thus the Constitutional compact has been opening of about two inches all around. The onsigned by Great Britian, in which she acknowledg. deliberately broken and disregarded by the non- ly things of note in the house, except its filth, were edges the said United States, viz : New Hamp- The ends for which this Constitution was framed discontinue the search, the band having scattered, shire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island and Prov- are declared by itself to be "to form a more per. I directed the artillery to return to Fort Leavenidence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New feet Union, establish justice, ensure domestic tran worth, the infantry to remain at Mound City, and his heirs and successors, relinquishes all claims to Federal Government, in which each State was re- I have determined on secount of the expense of the government, propriety, and territorial rights cognized as an equal, and had separate control maintaining so large a force in that part of the Ter. the "plantations of the South I" The four million tempt. (Tremendous applause.)

ded for the adoption of the States the articles of and have denied the rights of property established in the Territory, to assist them to run away when. idea of equal rights for the sexes? stitution; they have denounced as sinful the in- receiving sixty dollars per head," and to drive out stamp, a few days since, asserting the idleness and Spencer or Burnet House, she might be imprison- has never resided in a free State, but traveled The parties to whom this Constitution was sub- stitution of Slavery; they have permitted the open of the Territory all who oppose them in so doing. dependence of Illinois women—indeed, of all ed and fined. mitted were the several sovereign States. They establishment among them of societies whose A large pertion of the population on the border women—there "was not one in fifty that was the This too had been wiped out. It had been inagreed, the compact was to take offeet among danger the property of the citizens of other States. with them, and those who do not dare not oppose tenths of them could not even do their own work this legislation, but some of it had been forgot. "My mother was born in Georgia and married in those concurring, and the General Government, as They have encouraged and assisted thousands of them or give information concerning them. I am without hired help. Talk about giving such wothe common agent, was then to be invested with our slaves to leave their homes, and those who re-satisfied that the greater part, if not all of the do-men the right to acquire and hold property!"

Mr. Pugh here gave a history of the passage of was unwilling to take slaves, and did not. My ation among the other eleven, and during that in- Executive Department the means of subverting about sixty men, who receive ten dollars per month, ful answer. terval they exercised the functions of an indepen- the Constitution itself. A geographical line has besides a portion of the robberies, &c., and also "Why, my dear sir," I replied, "If you will pay Mr. Pugh also referred to an old resolution adopt-By this Constitution, certain duties were charge morth of that line have united in the election of a him timely notice of any movement set against your washings weekly, and allow her to put that and urging Representatives to vote for the unconon the soveral States, and the exercise of cer- man to the high office of President of the United him. The day before the troops reached Mound money in the savings' bank, and continue it for ditional repeal of the fugitive slave law. sain of their powers restrained, which necessarily States, whose opinions and purposes are hostile to City, Montgomery's men, to the number of be- twenty years, she will have more money laid up. He particularly emphasized the fact, that the implied their continued existence as sovereign Slavery. He is to be intrusted with the administ tween four hundred and five hundred, assembled at the end of that time than half you men could Legislature that had passed the act, to prayent the sed to ANN PEARSON, Publishing Agent, Salem, delegated to the United States by the Constitute permanently half slave, half free," and that the best and cheapest way to catch Montgomery little she would have left, if she wo

Thus was established, by compact between the loaugurate a new policy hostile to the South, and the 15th instant.

powers, limited to the express words of the grant, On the 4th of March next this party will take to a third fundamental principle-namely, the law and the Federal Government will have become in the second place, the very curious might en- put sixty dollars in the bank, and for a special Chio become the refuge of all the second place, tual-that the failure of one of the contracting irritation, and all hope of remedy is rendered vain bounds, slave-breeders, slave-drivers, and dealers and trust. Yet this man is called a strictly hon- mandamus, to have the Governor of Ohio ordered parties to perform a material part of the agree- by the fact that public opinion at the North has in- in their own flesh and blood? Why it was that est man-high-minded; genial and hospitable, to surrender the fugitive from justice. Mr. Pogh ment entirely releases the obligations of the other, vested a great political error with the sauctions of they were not glad to get rid of such a heathenish, "Such a good man !" the neighbors say.

dissolved, and that the State of South Carolina down into the fever swamps of South Carolina remark-"I never get out anywhere." shall, in consequence of any law or regulation all other acts and things which indepen- under old Abe, and let Democrats and their "vo-

firm reliance on the protection of Divine Provi-

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26, 1860.

HARDQUARTERS DEPT. OF THE WEST } Sr. Louis, Mo., Dec. 17, 1860. Siz: I have the honor to report, for the informathat South Carolina is released from its obliga- On the Sth, the Marshal having reported to Maj or Wessells that he deemed it of no use, and would citizens, and to assist the civil authorities when-main have been incited by emmisaries, books, and nations, which are sent to sufferers in Kansas, We asked him demurely, who raised all the chilgoes into the hands of this band, and the greater dren of Illinois-who cooked all the food-who the use of the county juits for the confinement of told the administrator to make out free papers for then were—separate, sovereign States, indepension steadily increasing, until it has now accured to its purchasing arms and munitions of war for carry- the clothes for the family—who nursed the sick— was that United States prisoners should be allowed Could the children of such parents ever hold dent of any of the provisions of the Constitution, aid the powers of the common Government. Oh- ing out their plans. It would take a large force to who act the tables, swept the house, and washed in the county jails only when they had been bondmen?

funde, and let him do it in his own way. people. On 23d May, 1788, South Carolina, by a This sectional combination for the subversion of Beheving that I could render no more service "Heaven save the mark!" He seemed to for, that had such a bloody outbreak at Harper's Ferry; convention of her people, passed an ordinance as the Constitution has been aided in some of the by remaining longer at Fort Scott, I determined get that she would, or could, or did ever do any was hatched in the State of Ohio, issued a requisisenting to this Constitution, and afterward altered States by elevating to citizenship persons who by to return to my headquarters in this city. I ac-Interested in the dissemination of Anti-Slavery her own Constitution, to conform herself to the the supreme law of the land, are incapable of be- cordingly left Fort Scott on the morning of the week!

> I am, sir, very respectfully, Your ob't serv't.

W. S. HARNEY, Brig. Gen. comd'g.

FORCE OR NO FORCE. It is the constant boast of the Republicans that care. Poor slave ! ting cartle" do she fighting?

This stipulation was so material to the compact dence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, the whole South, for as sure as the sun rises and now making in our State of Illinois to secure to prehends the Southern people nor the times in mother. The Secretary of War, to-day received the fol- one, not between the General Government and a the last two months, circulating petitions for this lowing dispatch from Gen. Harney. It contains State, but one between the whole North and the object, and we find in the hearts of the people, all the principle facts connected with Montgom- whole South. This is certain, and it is well for us, everywhere, a ready response. Much more so the laws of the General Government have ceased tion of the War Department, that as soon as the to eat, or a man to pull a trigger in the Southern relation. States; for, in spite of your taunts, they are a The slavery of women is older than chattelism, fence of their homes and their honor. When you chains-from the simple fact, that the husband, In pursuance of this Declaration of Indepen- Pennsylvania, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, of artillery mounted as cavalry, to proceed with dence, each of the thirteen States proceeded to ex- Wisconsin and Iowa have enacted laws which eith- the U. S. Deputy Marshal Campbell to Mound breath a little and look around you will unit; and she being a part of himself, he has a ercirc its separate sovereignty; adopted for itself or nullify the acts of Congress, or render useless City, where the band was thought to be, to make see plenty more such ready to be flogged. You can right to abuse himself as much as he pleases, a Constitution and appointed officers for the ad- any attempt to execute them. In many of these the arrest. This was on the 6th of this month, do a great deal of mischief, but it will be a very through her. ministration of government in all its departments States the fugitive is discharged from the service the command from Fort Riley having arrived there and if nothing else will On the other hand, we do know women who do -Chicago Times and Herald.

From the Liberator.

MENDOTA, (III.;) Dec. 1, 1860, FRIEND GARRISON,-I have just laid down the the 31st ult., in which he said:-

have printed them" many a time.

the garments?

Constitution until long after it had gone into oper- party has found within the article establishing the Montgomery has a regularly organized hand of "What does that all amount to "What

and house rent."

and Ohio. The man who doubts this neither com-which he lives. If there is to be war, there will be Mrs. TRACY CUTLER and myself have been, for crnors. It was no new thing. But it was a thing do, foreign aid will be called at any sacrifice rather not act well their part. We pray that both may poses of defense, they united their arms and their state Government complied with the stipulation counsels; and, in 1778, they entered into a league made in the Constitution. The State of New-Jerone once to make search for the offenders, but they known as the Articles of Confederation, whereby sey at an early day, passed a law for the rendition were no where to be found. Supported by a comthey agreed to entrust the administration of their of fugitive slaves in conformity with her Constituexternal relations to a common agent, known as tional undertaking; but the current of anti-Slave. tinued the search until a late hour of the night, drive our Southern Brethren from us. Time love; and, beginning their labors at home, let the Congress of the United States, expressly de- ry feeling has led her more recently to enact laws but every place was found described. The next enough to talk of killing other people when we them go from thence outward to the ends of the claring, in the first article, "that each State re- which render inoperative the remed es provided by morning he visited the house of Montgomery, and have got right ourselves, and have no other resort. earth, wherever there may be a human being wearing the fetters of a slave.

PUGH ON OHIO LEGISLATION.

Liberator of the 16th of November, containing the There was nothing more clearly written in the Union which was the work of Washington and his letter of Parker Pillsbury, bearing date from this Constitution of the United States than that the fu- compatriots, and which had been so full of blessplace. We thank him for those frank words of regitive slave that escaped from his master into a lings? proof to the manhood of our country; but he is free State, should not by that act become free, but mistaken in saying that "the most lynx-eyed of should on demand be delivered up. If this was the Woman Rights Lecturers have failed to note too hard a condition for us of the free States to the wrong" which he so graphically describes, observe, why let us go at it manfully, and amend Some of us have not only noted, but we have the Constitution. Do it like men. This thing of lowing narrative, which will be read with painful been "a chiel among them taking notes, and, faith, going about, slipping around, and speaking side- interest: ways, and getting up a war of Constables and Jus. Well might the sights and scenes which every tices of the Peace and Probate Judges, to evade a Rev. Mr. Willett, who was reported to have day met his eyes and ears almost make him forget constitutional law-met with his unutterable con- been taken to Fort Worth, and hung on the same over its own institutions. The right of property ritory, to reduce it to one company of infantry, slaves of the Southern plantations, whose skins Mr. Pugh reviewed at length the legislation of now here after a load of relief, for His family and Thus was established the two great principles in slaves was recognized by giving to free persons and have therefore directed Major Wessells to restance by the Colonies, namely, the right of a distinct political rights; by giving them the right slaves of these United States; and if these things give slaves. He quoted the law of 1856, and in-State to govern itself, and the right of a people to to represent and burdening them with direct taxes is ordered to relieve the squadron of dragoons at meet us among reformers, among men professing stanced the imprisonment of Deputy Marshals in I take the liberty to transcribe. abolish a government when it becomes destructive for three-fifths of their slaves, by authorizing the Fort Scott as soon as the payments on the Miami to believe in human rights, what can be the conof the ends for which it was instituted. And con- the importation of slaves for twenty years, and by Indian reserve, which he has been ordered to atcurrent with the establishment of these principles stipulating for the rendition of fugitives from labor. tend with his company, are completed. The dra- for the "free white male citizen?" Can we expect served not only in his own county, but throughout surrection and burning buildings; all which any earnest anti-Slavery effort while nearly every the State. This law had been repealed by a party charges against the anti-slavery men were false. egaized by the mother country as a free, sover ment was instituted have been defeated, and the I believe that Montgomery's band is fully as man in the country over twenty-five years of age vote—the Republicans against repeal, the Demo- The real object was, to drive off all the free state Government itself has been made destructive of large as represented to be; that they are sworn to owns one pair of hands, for whose labor of a life-orats for it. The same Legislature that bad enactive of large as represented to be; that they are sworn to In 1787, deputies were appointed by the States them by the notion of the non-slaveholding States, protect each other by perjury, assassination, and time he is only obliged to give "necessary sup- ted this law thus repealed, had enacted that, if northwest-one of the four slave States, intended to revise the Articles of Confederation, and on Those States have assumed the right of deciding in every way possible. Their object is, as declar- port?" Will be have any realizing sense of the anybody brought a slave into the State, even for a to be carved out of Texas. 17th September, 1787, these deputies recommen- upon the propriety of our domestic institutions, ed publicly by themselves, to protect fugitive slaves degradation of casts, so long as he spurns the minute, such person was subjected to fine and imprisonment. If a sick Southern lady for instance, raised. A native of West Tonnessee, he removed union known as the Constitution of the United in fifteen of the States, and recognized by the Con- ever an opportunity offers, "taking them East and We heard an anti-slavery man of the strongest should bring her nurse with her, and stop at the with his parents, at the age of seven, to Texas; were to agree or disagree; and when nine of them avowed object is to disturb the peace and to en- either belongs to this organization or sympathizes least belp to a man in getting a living, and nine- tended by the Legislature of 1857, to wipe out all was born with them, for aught I know," he replied.

"quilty of crime." This law, Mr. Pugh argued, Thinking that his life was in danger, he sire & between the several States and the United States. been drawn across the Union, and all the States spies and runners all over the country, who give your wife the ordinary price for simply doing up ed by an Obio Legislature, Instructing Senators

Orders for the paper and letters containing States. But, to remove all doubt, an amendment tration of the common Government, because he and passed resolutions, a copy of which have been raise as the saving of the same number of years." use of the jails of the State, for the confinement money in payment for the same, should be addres- was added, which declared that the powers not has declared that the powers not have no tion, nor prohibited by it to the States, are public mind must rest in the belief that Slavery is and his party will be to furnish the Governor with furnishing soap and water, tubs, fire-wood, board that during the last year, the State of Virginia; having ascertained that a part of the conspirace to the authorities of Virginia, of persons who were coming cirizens, and their votes have been used to 11th, and arrived here on Saturday evening last, We met another of these reformers, who, in the indicted for participation in the John Brown feld: presence of a large company, scolded a young And the Governor of Ohio, had looked into the wife not twenty-one, who was the mother of two matter, and repudiated the requisition because the children, and about to become the mother of the warrants had been sworn to before a magistrate, third, till she wept like a child in her agony; simp- instead of before a notary public. This, was the ly because some trifling matter of mere conven. way that Virginia, the State who gave this soil to ience to him had not been attended to in an at- the people had been treated-the Governor of Ohio sence of weeks, leaving her with all the household descending to the arts of a third rate demagogue before a justice of the peace! And that was not they will whip the Cotton States into obedience. Another one who writes letters for the Libera- ull. Mr. Pugh referred to the Lago case. A man We hold that the Government thus es at lished The guaranties of the Constitution will then no There are two or three considerations worthy of for, and gives his energies to the defence of the indicted for a violation of the Laws of Kentucky quire why it was that these saintly gentlemen de- purpose; and when she called for it, he had taken Had we not rescals enough of our own? And the did not think the Supreme Court would claim jupoverty-stricken, and godless set of out-laws and Mr. Pillsbury's account of the weman who got risdiction. He did not think it had jurisdiction. is remitted to his own judgment to determine the We, therefore, the people of South Carolina, by scamps; and at the same time wash their own supper for ten, reminds me of a like circumstance. But talk of preserving the Union, when you teach our delegates in Convention assembled, appealing hands of all connection with the "accursed institu- I had lectured three evenings in a neighborhood, men to disregard constitutional obligations and DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE OF In the present case that fact is established with to the Supreme Judge of the world for the recticertainty. We assert that fifteen of the States tude of our intentions, have solemnly declared conjecture whether these gentlemen who are so breast-was my landlady. The last evening I plause and bisses.) This very Legislature that have deliberately refused for years past to fulfill that the Union be ctofore existing between this brave in their numbers, and so fiery in courage, urged her to go, and the husband offered to stay met next Mo. lay, had gone out of the way to pass their Constitutional obligations, and we refer to State and the other States of North America is when backed by the National power, intend to go with the baby. Talking it over, she let fall the a law framed expressly to back up Gov. Dennison in his action in the Lago case. Here Mr. Pugh The Constitution of the United States, in its 4th bas resumed her position among the nations of the Paily Press world, as a free, sovereign, and independent State, ping half a dozen States into obedience, them- "you've been out twice since I can remember: that when he (Mr. Pugh) made a statement of fact; "No person held to service or labor in one State, with full power to levy war, conclude peace, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, contract alliances, establish commerce and do ing, as usual, get fat contracts to supply the army Hannah's." This husband was an earnest Woman's Rights in the audience repeatedly demanded to know man, and a Garrisonian-by Eprofession. He what the man that Mr. Dennison refused to give pire embracing Great Britain undertook to make but shall be delivered up, on claim of the party to And, for the support of this declaration, with a limit have emancipated one slave, surely, if he up had been indicted for. Mr. Pugh did not hear bim, and finally said, if his interrogator would had been done by Whig and by Democratic Gov-

Governors of Ohio and the citizens -- of all parery's raid, and throws some light in regard to the when we determine to whip somebody, to know than in New York last winter; and we hope that objects and purposes of the funds that are being beforehand who is to be the customer we have to the time is not far distant when the evils complained of,-which are often more the result of first things that should be done, was the passage We must calculate, when the process does com- custom than of any positive intention of unkind. of the measure for the suppression of insurrection mence, to keep it up just as long as there is bread ness,-will not be found marring the household ary movements, that was introduced into the Oblo Legislature by a Republican Senator (Harrison) last winter. He would give the Ropublican Sentbrave and heroic people, and will perish in de- and I much fear it will take longer to file off her tor full credit for it. We must have independence enough to rise above the dictation of party newspapers and sweep from the Statute books all nullifying laws and resolutions, and present the State with clean hands. Mr. Pugh here referred to the resolutions of the Ohio Legislature denouncing by name the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, for the Drad Scott decision. Was that the way to inculcate a law shiding contiment? Let us take the beam out of our eye and come up to the work of saving the Union-of insisting upon the observance of order and the enforcement of law-without the embarrassment arising from our sions to perform plain duties. Appeal to the Legislature that meets next Monday to clean tip out own statute book. Having done that, we would be in a position to admonish the secessionists of the South-and if need be, to admonish them severely; (loud applause,) unless we do place ourselves right, how can we do anything to Senator Pugh made a speech in Cincinnation establish more perfect union, to perpetuate that

From the Congregational Herald,

BEWLEY AND WILLETT. We have received from a reliable source the fol-

ATCHISON, KANSAS, Dec. 14, 1860. limb with Rev. Mr. Bewley and Mr. Crawford, is through the North when a lad. "How and when Alabama; but when she received her patrimony,